

STAT

Title: FASCISM AND WOMEN'S CHALLENGE

Source: P'as-si-chum kwa t'ujaseng hamu yosong tul (Fascism and Women's Challenge), by Nina Waeirlepona Bobowa, translated /from Russian/ into Korean by Kang Chong-hui, published by the Korea-Soviet Cultural Society, P'yongyang, 5 June 1948.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

FASCISM AND WOMEN'S CHALLENGE

"p'as-si-chum kwa t'ujaeng hanun yosong tul" (Fascism and Women's Challenge), by NINA WASIRIEPONA BOBOWA, translated [From Russian] into Korean by Kang Chong-hui, published by the Korea-Soviet Cultural Society, P'yongyang, 5 June 1948, price 50 won, pp 114.

Translator's forewords:

...Under the sponsorship of the French women anti-Fascists, the democratic women all over the world who have been fighting the Fascism assembled in Paris in 1945 and formed the "International Anti-Fascism Women's League" on 17 June 1945. The following is the translation of the speech made at the above convention by Mme. NINA BOBOWA of the USSR, who is vice chairman of the International Democratic Women's League, and chairman of the Soviet Anti-Fascist Women's Committee...

General contents of the book:

The evils of Fascism; the Soviet women in struggle against Fascism; the French women's role in the French underground activities in 1940 and during the Nazi occupation; the great works of the French Women's League in the struggles against Fascism; praise of Mme. KYO-T'ON and other prominent French anti-Fascist leaders; the British women's activities in the post-war rehabilitation of England; the Chinese women's partisans activities during the Japanese occupation of China; other examples of women's anti-Fascism fights in other countries during and prior to the World War II.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

Among the representatives who attended the Paris convention were from France (notably Mme. KYO-T'ON, chairman of the French Women's League, and others), England, Spain, Belgium, Yugoslavia, Italy, China, and the USSR (Mme. BOBOWA and other Red leaders). Mme. KYO-T'ON was elected chairman of the promotion committee for the International Anti-Fascism Women's League, at the convention. The manifesto: elimination of Fascism; establishment of Democracy; political and economic freedoms for women; women's active participation in the establishment of a lasting world peace.

The cardinal objective is the unification of world women for preservation of peace and democracy, and wherefore popularization of the world democratic women's movement in a fight against Fascism.

[This document has no Far East value, except as another facet in propaganda and indoctrination. No further action deemed worthwhile.]

RESTRICTED

- 2 -